Josepha Campinha-Bacote, PhD, MAR,
PMHCNS-BC, CTN, FAAN

Dr. Campinha-Bacote, an international expert on cultural competency in health care, is President and Founder of Transcultural C.A.R.E. Associates. In 2000, Dr. Campinha-Bacote served on the National Advisory Committee to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of Minority Health to develop standards for Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services (CLAS) in Health Care. She currently serves as a consultant to the National Center For Cultural Competence (NCCC) in Washington, DC and on several HRSA grants focusing on cultural competence in the health professions.

Guadalupe Pacheco, Jr., MPH, MA

Guadalupe Pacheco serves as a Public Health Advisor and Special Assistant to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Minority Health, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Mr. Pacheco also serves as a Technical Advisory member to The Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations' Hospitals (JCAHO), Language, and Culture Study; an Expert Panelist on CLAS/Health Disparities for the National Committee for Quality Assurance; and a Senior Advisor to the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Speaking Together: National Language Services Network Initiative.

Both events are free but RSVP is required! To RSVP, please contact Sloan Sanford at 330-375-2988 ext. 4332 or email SanfoSl@ci.akron.oh.us.
